

For the prevention and cure of MELIUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS
is recommended

HAN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended in a degree of success highly grateful the inventor's feelings in several parts the West Indies and in the Southern Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons to be added, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak in favour of a medicine than commons of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously presented as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further,
at the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases seemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual constiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

fords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster,

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, in an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals,
the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness or of accident.

Fan-Sash Making

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expense in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.
Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as in town.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1818.

From the Bond of Union.

THE POWERS OF WHISKEY.

Let others sing of castles storm'd,
And mighty heroes slain;
I sing what Whiskey has perform'd
And can perform again.

The essence of this liquid fire,
Experiences thousands own,
Gives rest in beds of filth and mire,
Soft as on beds of down.

Sometimes a single draught, we see
Drive sorrow from the heart,
And give the system energy,
Beyond the doctor's art.

Its votaries oft, by capricious draughts,
Put every care to flight;
Rob conscience of its probing shafts,
And kill reflection quite.

When long and freely used, it shows,
What wonders it can do;
I've seen it turn a milk-white nose
Almost a Prussian blue!

Its magic makes the poor man rich;
A noble of the slave;
It lays the ruder in the ditch,
And makes the coward brave.

It gives the groveling fancy wing;
Makes pride politely nod;
It makes the peasant seem a king—
The king a demigod.

It banishes deformity—
Gives vice itself a grace;
Re-animates the languid eye,
And smooths the wrinkled face.

It changes order to misrule—
Makes the loquacious mute;
It makes the witty man a fool—
The fool a nasty brute.

And if a grave be found at all,
For him who dies its slave;
It asks no mournful tear to fall
On that neglected grave.

From the New York Columbian.

SPOTS ON THE SUN.

There are at present 5 spots on the Sun's disc, two on his northwest, and one on his southeast limb; there were yesterday morning, three in a cluster on his northwest limb, one of which has since closed up or disappeared. There are a number of spots on all parts of his surface, which appeared and disappeared as he revolves round his axis; one on or near his centre, disappeared in three days, and another in 24 hours. The first appearance of the spots, the present year, was about the middle of last April, since which time I have repeated observations of them with one of Richardson's improved telescopes. The diameter of all the spots, on one half of the sun's surface, taken together, I judge to be about one-fifth of his diameter; now admitting the diameters of the earth to be in proportion to each other as 1 to 100, it follows these spots are twice the diameter, or about sixteen thousand miles, and consequently cover a space on the sun's surface of not less than two hundred millions of square miles, which is about ten millions of square miles more than the superficies of our globe.

This when compared with the sun's superficies, I will allow, is but small, yet there can be no doubt but what this diminution of the solar rays has co-operated with the Greenland ice in rendering our Springs, both in Europe and America, and more particularly the present, so very backward and inclement. Are not these phenomena well worthy the attention of scientific men throughout the country?

J. B. A.

Anecdote. A Bar after returning from a voyage for logwood, having made rather too free with a plank belonging to the owners of the vessel to which he belonged, was taken before a justice and accused of the theft. On being asked what he had to say in his defence, replied—"That, after having assisted to steal a whole ship load from the Spaniards, it was a hard case that he could not have a plank for his own use, without so much palaver."

Curious Marriage. An article from Brussels, of the 12th inst. says—"An inhabitant of Comines, M. Butin, died there on the 6th of this month, aged 84. This man was twice married, and what is very remarkable, his second wife was born on the very day that his first wife died, and he then declared he would never have any other wife than this infant. In fact, he waited till she was twenty years old, when he married her. He was then sixty-four years of age; he had a daughter by her the first year of his marriage, and a second twenty years afterwards, in the month of January last; he leaves several children, the eldest of whom is sixty years of age, and the youngest scarcely two months. This man lived twenty years with his first wife, remained twenty years a widower, and his second marriage lasted also twenty years."

South American Affairs.

KINGSTON, May 1.

All accounts respecting the warfare between Spain and the South American Independents, bear evidence of the party from which they have respectively proceeded. In each statement by the royalists, the destruction of the enemy is almost at hand. In each communication from the independents, the royal cause appears desperate. Victory after victory is claimed on each side. Hope, confidence and success, are attendant on either army. Thus there are scarcely any authenticated facts to warrant a conjecture upon the real state of the protracted contest.

Without inquiring into the influence which these hostilities may have upon G. Britain or her colonies, it cannot be otherwise than painful to witness so much bloodshed between communities that ought to have existed in the natural attachment. Barbarous and short-sighted is the policy of that country which regards with indifference the interest and happiness of her remote dominions. Distant settlements are held by great nations only for the sake of some important advantages, real or imaginary. But the tenure should be that of kindness, and not of oppression. Justice is reciprocal, and the most humble from whom benefits are received, have just title for protection and liberality from those whose interests they serve. But Spain and her councils seem inadequate to conceive any thing that is noble or just, or humane. The reward of such conduct in government is always certain. Power and circumstances may sometimes delay the natural consequences of tenacity and insatiation; but in the appointed time they will learn the truth of these few comprehensive words which the genius of Hume has recorded for the admonition of thoughtless governments, 'MAN AND FOR EVER.'

Extract of a letter from Curacao to a gentleman in this island, dated April 22.

'By the papers which accompany this you will be informed of the state of affairs in Venezuela: the royalists represent them in a manner suitable to their purpose, nevertheless, from their own accounts you may not unfrequently elicit the truth. At the famous campaign of Calabozo, the royalists suffered considerably, having lost a quantity of ammunition and provisions, a grand park of artillery, all their officers' baggage and soldiers' clothing, besides, general Morillo leaving behind his sword and military cap. A whole regiment was destroyed, of 300 hussars, only six escaped, and 600 others were made prisoners. From the excessive fatigue of the independent army, owing to the forced marches it had made to surprise the headquarters of Morillo then in Calabozo, only a small division was sent in pursuit, which followed the royalists as far as Barbacoas, where the latter received some reinforcements, when they were attacked and forced to retreat; and it was generally promulgated that they had been victorious, which arrested the emigration that had commenced from La Guayra and Puerto Cabello. A few days afterwards, an attack was made by the royalists on the independents in Sombrero, a place not far from Calabozo, where the former were defeated; and on the 10th March a division of general Bolivar's occupied the beautiful valley of Aragua, and their advanced posts as far as Valencia, twelve leagues from Puerto Cabello. The division of the independents which the royalists state to have been defeated in the Puerta, was no other than what entered the valleys of Aragua, as an advanced guard and then retired. It is impossible that Bolivar's army should only consist of 1500 infantry, and 2000 cavalry when the royalists themselves confess he possessed himself of Calabozo with 5000 men, the greater part cavalry of which his force is comprised; but at the action of the Puerto, they gave him more infantry than cavalry.

'The Spanish Gazettes do not notice the wound Morillo received at the Puerto on the 17th March, although there is every reason to think that this which was inflicted with a spear in his right groin, was mortal, and obliged his being carried to Valencia in a hammock. The Gazette Extraordinary of Caracas, of the 27th March, (although the distance of Villa de Cura from Caracas is only twenty-five leagues) delays publishing an account of the above action for 10 days, which they give at the same time with the account of another that occurred on the 23d of the same month. It may, therefore, justly be inferred, that Morillo had died, and the royalists did not like to announce it, or that he was so ill as not to be able to sign the despatch. If the wound was slight, why conceal it? there was no necessity, had he recovered, to hide it on the 23d March.

'On the 27th March, general La Torre, who took the command after Morillo was wounded, was defeated at Ortiz, 37 leagues south east from Caracas, by the independent general Paez. In this combat, the royalists lost 400 men in killed and a number of Officers. This account is confirmed by letters of the royalists themselves, received from La Guayra and Puerto Cabello, as well as by several persons arrived from the former port, who say that night decided the engagement, and that La Torre retreated with his army to Villa de Cura and that Paez, after leaving in Ortiz a picket of 200 men marched upon San Carlos, 70 leagues from Caracas, which he occupied, and proceeded on to Valencia, consequently Paez remained master of the field of battle at Ortiz. A Caracas Gazette of the 1st ult. states, 'that Paez, in Ortiz, did not reap all the advantage he expected or wished,' but does not say that he was defeated.

'We ascertain from different quarters, accounts of the arrival of British subjects at Guayana, amounting to 2,300 men, to join the Independents. On the 20th ult. a vessel arrived here from St. Thomas's, and brought accounts that two schooners had anchored from La Guayra and Puerto Cabello, announcing the defeat of La Torre in Ortiz, and that 2,000 men had taken possession of St. Carlos, and was on their march to Valencia. Bion is stated to be at St. Rostalia with his squadron, having compelled the Royalist squadron under Garosa to leave the mouths of the Oronoco.

Extract of a letter from St. Domingo, dated April 17, to a gentleman in this city.

'This day a vessel has arrived here from Curacao, the Captain of which affirms that Bolivar was in Valencia; that Morillo had been completely defeated, and in his flight was mortally wounded by a lance, and died soon after. The like information is confirmed by a person who has just arrived here from Porto Rico, referring to intelligence which had reached that Island from Puerto Cabello. 'A Dutch frigate which sailed from Curacao to receive any property belonging to the inhabitants of that colony had not returned, as Puerto Cabello was shut to her admission.'

The brig San Joseph, Elie, from St. Domingo to Petit Trou, for a cargo, was on the 9th inst. taken, plundered, and afterwards liberated by two schooner privateers under the republican flag of Buenos Ayres, came into Port Royal yesterday afternoon.

The schooner Sophia, which arrived at this port two days since, from Santo Domingo, was boarded about 10 o'clock on Saturday night last off Altavella, by a schooner, supposed to be one of those marauders which infest our seas. She hailed the Sophia, and ordered her captain to heave to and send his boat on board. In reply it was alleged, that the boat could not swim. They repeated in a peremptory tone the order, and threatened to fire into the Sophia if it was not immediately complied with; the boat was thereupon sent, and an officer, apparently a Spaniard, came on board: he demanded the Sophia's papers, and ordered the captain into the boat, which mandate he resisted.

They then searched her, and discovered in his bed, a Spanish gentleman, the only passenger, who was very sick. In spite of every remonstrance of the captain of the Sophia against such an outrageous act, they took the passenger on board the marauder and detained him. Afterwards they ordered the Sophia to make immediate sail. They refused to give the name of the privateer or her commander. She appeared to carry one gun, and have a motley crew of fifty men, several of them blacks. Her people reported they had taken two Dutch vessels, which were then lying at Beata, and that one of them had specie on board.

FROM ST. HELENA.

The ship Columbus, which arrived at Boston on the 25th ult. from Calcutta, spoke on her passage the English com-ny ship Thomas Grenville, informed that Napoleon was a little indisposed, and was about moving his quarters to some other part of the island, thinking his present situation unhealthy, the governor having given him that liberty. That he had become very petulant and uneasy, and appeared to be extremely unhappy: That he objected to holding intercourse with any one, and wished to live entirely alone. All his attendants had left him except Bertrand and one other Frenchman, he having quarrelled with them all, and it was thought that these two would also soon leave him.

Alexandria, June 3, 1818.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. 30.

The President of the United States and suite arrived in this city on Thursday evening last, for the purpose of embarking on his intended excursion down the Chesapeake, so far as Hampton and Norfolk. He is accompanied by the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, Col. McRea of the engineer corps, and two or three private gentlemen. He was waited on by the Mayor of the city, and an address delivered by the corporation on Thursday evening.

Yesterday morning was occupied in viewing the public works, the harbor, and the different points of the Severn from the entrance to the round bay at the head of the river—and in the afternoon he partook of a dinner given by the citizens at Mr. Brewer's hotel. We learn that he designs embarking this day.

[Md. Rep.]

ANTHONY ST. JOHN BAKER, esq. who has been constantly at his post in this city since the ratification of the treaty of Ghent with Great Britain—first, as his Britannic majesty's charge d'affaires, and afterwards, on the arrival of his excellency Mr. Bagot, as consular general, we learn, is going to return for a short time to England, for the benefit of his health. Mr. Baker's standing in the United States, as a member of the diplomatic corps, as well as a private gentleman, has commanded that esteem and distinguished attention so justly due to his merit.—W. Washington, May 27.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, 26 May, 1818.

During the last session of Congress, the House of Representatives adopted a resolution, of which the following is a copy, viz.

In the House of Representatives of the United States, March 30, 1818.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury, be requested to prepare and report to this House, at their next session, a plan for the application of such means as are within the power of Congress, to the purpose of opening and improving roads, and making canals; together with a statement of the undertakings of that nature, which as objects of public improvement, may require and deserve the aid of government, and also a statement of works, of the nature above mentioned, which have been commenced, the progress which has been made in them, and the means and prospect of their being completed, the public improvements carried on by states, or by companies, or incorporations which have been associated for such purposes, to which it may be deemed expedient to subscribe, or afford assistance, the terms and conditions of such associations, and the state of their funds; and such information as, in the opinion of the Secretary, shall be material, to the objects of this resolution.—Attest,

THOS. DOUGHERTY,

Clerk House of Representatives.

To enable the Secretary of the Treasury to comply with the important requisitions of the foregoing resolutions, all companies or incorporation, associated for opening roads and making canals, which they may respectively conceive, require and deserve the aid of the government, are invited to furnish this Department with such information concerning their respective undertakings, as is required by the resolution, and which may be necessary to bring their claims to the patronage of the government, before the Congress of the United States, at the commencement of their next session.

Where a canal or road has been commenced, the communication ought to state distinctly the dimensions of the work; the nature of the soil and face of the country through which it is to pass, its greatest elevation and depression, and mean level; the progress which has been made; the expense incurred, and the whole probable expense, estimated upon the experience acquired in the execution of the undertaking.

In all cases of canals, the number and dimensions of the locks; the mean quantity of earth to be removed per mile; the nature and extent of the navigation to which they are to be connected, should be distinctly made known.

In every case, the facility of obtaining materials for the construction of roads, bridges and locks, should be stated.—The acts of incorporation, or articles of association; the by-laws which have been enacted; the amount of the fund authorised or agreed to be subscribed; the sum actually subscribed; the amount paid in; the sum expended; the amount remaining on hand; and the means and probability of enforcing the payment of the balance; should invariably be stated in every communication. And generally every kind of information which can shed light upon the undertaking.

WM. H. CRAWFORD,
Secretary of the Treasury.

Extract of a letter to the Editor of the Charleston Times, dated Havana May 8.

Our market affords but a sorry prospect for speculators. Sugar and coffee keep up, and I can discover no reason to apprehend a decline until January or February next year, the commencement of the next crop, when it must fall a few cents, as the crops bid fair to be very large generally. Some plantations have suffered considerably, in the direction of Mantanzas for rain, notwithstanding they may have large crops, as the principal blossom of the coffee tree does not appear until about the middle of the present month, when our periodical rains afford refreshing showers daily. You will find in the paper of the 1st inst. a general price current of imports and exports; and in that of the 5th, a list of the convey that left here on that day—the number of African traders will astonish you, say 30 sail, embracing a capital of $800,000 or 1,000,000, including vessels and cargoes. A few days before fleet sailed, an insurgent ship and brig appeared off the Moro—their intentions no doubt were to wait for the fleet.

There is a great fresh this morning in the Potomac. On Sunday and Monday, the weather was sultry and cloudy, and indicated rain—little fell in town and that in light showers. From the quantity of drift-wood now descending the river, the upper country must have been visited with heavy rain for several days past.

Absconded,
ON the night of the 16th inst. my negro man JOHN, or JOHN ALLEN, (as he calls himself)—he is well known, having lived with me for several years, and has travelled a good deal with me. He is a very plausible fellow, about 30 years of age, slender made, and about 5 feet 5 inches high, rather of a yellow complexion, but the complete negro mouth and nose—has a small scar on one of his cheeks—has lately had a sore on his right leg, directly on the shin bone, which leg has the appearance of being much scored at a former period by disease or the small pox. His hat was made and stamped by Rogers of Baltimore.—A reward of 10 dollars will be given if taken in the town or county of Alexandria, 20 if in the county of Washington or Fairfax, 50 if in Baltimore or state of Maryland, and 100 if in Philadelphia or the state of Pennsylvania, and in like proportion if at any other places, with all reasonable charges for bringing him here and securing him in jail.

These celebrated bitters are composed purely of vegetables of the most innocent, yet specific virtues, and are infinitely superior to any thing yet discovered, for restoring weak and decayed constitutions, destroying worms, cleansing and strengthening the stomach, increasing the appetite, and by the frequent use of them, they are a certain preventive against those complaints so common in the spring and fall seasons, such as intermittent fevers, and agues, long Autumnal fevers, dysenteries, &c. They are also of infinite service to those in the sailing line, who make long voyages at sea, and are exposed to unhealthy climates; a preventive against contagious disorders—they are also a very pleasant bitter and are particularly recommended for the use of Taverns and Public houses, as well as private families.

James Kennedy & Son,
RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:
Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges.
Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.
This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.
Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.
Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Tape or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.
Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.
Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.
A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.
Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly gratifying to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.
The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.
Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.
It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infalible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infalible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.
The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.
They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.
